

Rain Coats

The most useful garment in a man's wardrobe is his Rain Coat. At this season the weather changes without much notice. We get warm days, cold days, rainy days; everything in the line of "weather" that can be handed out. Nothing will protect you better than one of our

CRAVENETT RAIN COATS

They are made in unfinished worsteds and dark oxford mixed, all guaranteed to turn rain.

Boys

My advice to you is to go to the Golden Rule at once and get your new suit, I find to have been good. You are dressed up-to-date and you certainly get your nice clothes cheap. I see from their advertisements they also have overcoats and underwear. We must get our supply at once.
